

As a single woman and Jaguar car owner, I have sought out the most thorough and trustworthy people to take care of my car and me. The Jag Shop has proven time and again to be very honest, extremely thorough and very nice people to visit. With even the most basic of maintenance, Craig's technicians are always looking for potential problems, trends and dangers that can be addressed in time before they become a significant issue. I am extremely happy with the quality of work produced by The Jag Shop, and am equally happy with the customer care that I have recieved. I will highly recommend The Jag Shop to anyone searching for the "right place." I have not been disappointed.
